Marianna Fassinotti is a managing director at the D. E. Shaw group and a member of the group’s Asset-Backed Strategies (ABS) investment unit. Fassinotti heads the Loans and Related Assets team within the ABS unit and serves as co-portfolio manager of the firm’s most recent intermediate-duration distressed credit fund, which pursues an opportunistic, alpha-seeking strategy and targets European non-performing loans and related assets. Since Fassinotti joined the ABS team, the team has invested in 20 portfolios of loans and related assets with an aggregate face value of over €5bn. Prior to joining the D. E. Shaw group in 2015, she was a managing director at Siguler Guff & Company, LP, co-head of that firm’s distressed investment business, and co-portfolio manager of its distressed opportunities funds. Previous to that, Fassinotti was an associate director at UBS AG focusing on global distressed debt and special situations investments. She began her career as a research associate in residential mortgage-backed securities at Lehman Brothers. Fassinotti received her AB in government from Harvard University and earned an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth. She is a native Italian speaker and fluent in Spanish.
